

Healing Our Church

Lenten Initiative

Catholics throughout the Diocese of Allentown are invited to attend small group discussions moderated by fellow parishioners and designed to encourage reflection and conversation about the clergy abuse crises. Healing our Church is a program developed by RENEW International, a Catholic, nonprofit organization. Bishop Alfred Schlert has called the parish based small group discussions “an opportunity for all of us to prayerfully reflect on scripture, on the abuse crisis, and on our path forward as a Roman Catholic Family of Faith.”

At the request of Monsignor Martin, St. Peter’s Parish Pastoral Council is promoting the Healing Our Church initiative in our Parish. Lent is a time when we reflect on the sacrifice Jesus made for all of us. Perhaps, in addition to your normal Lenten discipline, you could give time to build a stronger family of faith at St. Peter’s.

We hope you will prayerfully consider participating in the six sessions. This year we will be offering a 90-minute day or evening session. More information is available on our parish website: www.stpeterchurchcoplay.com

To sign up, fill the form below and drop it into the collection basket, return to the rectory or simply phone the rectory at 610.262.2417
